Teaching Philosophy	Teaching is providing opportunities for students to learn & supporting them in the learning process. That means both the teacher (me) & students (you) must stay continually engaged & work to ensure you understand the material & can apply the knowledge & skills in a variety of situations. You must be an active participant on the learning process. Instructor's Role - The instructor serves as facilitator in the learning process: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing engaging learning opportunities for the students • Assigning readings & challenging projects • Assessing students' work & providing feedback • Clarifying complicated concepts

Student Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Check Canvas daily for Emails/Updates/Announcements. • Submit assignments in Canvas (by due date). • Certain projects may not properly function with Apple products. Please make sure your Apple product works with the assignments prior to due dates of assignments otherwise use the FGCU virtual lab to complete the assignment. Some assignments may indicate that a MAC will not work – you will need to use the FGCU Virtual lab. • Make sure the assignment shows as submitted on MINDTAP & you have received a grade prior to the close date for credit. No exceptions! • Contact me with issues or questions as soon as they arise & prior to due date. • Knowledge assessments will be given for Technology for Success: Computer Concepts along with ACCESS, EXCEL, & WORD. • All trainings & projects on MINDTAP must be completed as scheduled. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure assignments are completed properly by checking the reports section on MINDTAP. If the assignment was completed with a grade, it will post in Canvas. Failure to contact me before the due date of the assignment will result in a zero for that assignment if not submitted correctly. • Final will be given online in class on MINDTAP per schedule. Please notify those responsible for purchasing your travel at the end of the semester to avoid conflicts during finals week.
Policy regarding missed tests or assignments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance is mandatory for successful completion of a hybrid course & participation is necessary for successful completion of an online course. • Per policy, no make-ups for missed exams are administered (except for authorized & excused absences specified in the university catalog). A student who seeks an authorized or excused absence must submit documentation (such as a physician’s note) to the instructor in a timely manner. See the university catalog for more information. • Assignments missed must be made up within the first week back. No assignments will be made up afterwards unless documentation states clearly the dates affected per university guidelines. • No late assignments will be accepted for any reasons except the authorized & excused absences specified in the university catalog. • Unfortunately, "dropped by the University for not paying the full tuition" is not an authorized & excused absence as specified in the university catalog. • An emergency such as unavailability of or inaccessibility to CANVAS due to network problems will be considered by the instructor on a case by case basis. Students must submit documentation (such as a screenshot of error messages) to the instructor in a timely manner. • Final will be given online on class on MINDTAP per schedule. Please notify those responsible for purchasing your travel at the end of the semester to avoid conflicts during finals week.
Statement on e-mail usage in Eagle mail and/or CANVAS email	You must use either Eagle e-mail or Canvas messaging to communicate with the instructor & other students.
Last day to drop/withdraw without academic penalty	November 1 (http://www.fgcu.edu/Registrar/academiccalendar.asp)
University Statements
Academic Behavior Standards & Academic Dishonesty All students are expected to demonstrate honesty in their academic pursuits. The university policies regarding issues of honesty can be found in the FGCU Student Guidebook under the Student Code of Conduct & Policies & Procedures sections. All students are expected to study this document which outlines their responsibilities & consequences for violations of the policy. The FGCU Student Guidebook is available online at http://studentservices.fgcu.edu/judicialaffairs/new.html. Sanctions for academic dishonesty may include receiving an “F” in this course – FGCU may impose additional penalties. Any incidents of academic dishonesty may be referred to the FGCU Office of Judicial Affairs. Please look up the definition of plagiarism – it includes copying something off the Internet & submitting it as your own work. Some examples of what is NOT acceptable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working with another student & turning in the MINDTAP’s work (e.g. tests, papers, spreadsheet, database, etc.). • Emailing or posting your work to let someone else “just see how you did it”. • Copying someone’s assignment or copying something from a book or the Internet. • Giving or receiving help from someone (in person, online or on the phone) during an online test. • Telling someone else what is on a test.

- Collaborating on the final exam

Examples of what is acceptable:

- Discussing how to approach an assignment with another student.
- Showing someone where they might have made a mistake on an assignment.
- Asking the professor for assistance.

University Nondiscrimination Statement

Florida Gulf Coast University is committed to ensuring equity & fairness for all University employees, students, visitors, vendors, contractors & other third parties. As such, the University prohibits discrimination on the bases of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, disability, sex (including sexual harassment/assault), gender identity/expression, marital status, sexual orientation, veteran status or genetic predisposition with regard to admissions, employment, programs or other activities operated by the University. This prohibition extends to enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Questions or complaints should be directed to the Office of Institutional Equity & Compliance (OIEC). The OIEC's phone number is (239)745-4366; the OIEC email address is OIEC@fgcu.edu.

Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS)

Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS) provides free counseling & therapy services (including psychiatry) to all FGCU students. Please walk into the Student and Community Counseling Center building on the 3rd floor office any weekday between 8:30 & 4:30 to schedule an initial contact appointment. Visit the CAPS website at www.fgcu.edu/caps for more information. CAPS offer a 24/7 Helpline at (239) 745-3277 (EARS). If you feel like you may be in danger of hurting yourself or others, call 911 or go to the nearest hospital. If you are an FGCU student in immediate distress outside of normal business hours (evenings, weekends, and holidays) who would like to speak with a mental health professional can call the CAPS help line: 239-745-EARS (3277).

Disability Accommodations Services

Florida Gulf Coast University, in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act & the university's guiding principles, will provide classroom & academic accommodations to students with documented disabilities. If you need to request an accommodation in this class due to a disability, or you suspect that your academic performance is affected by a disability, please see me or contact the Office of Adaptive Services. The Office of Adaptive Services is located in the Wellness Building. The phone number is 239-590-7956 or Video Phone (VP) 239-243-9453. In addition to classroom & campus accommodations, individuals with disabilities are encouraged to create their personal emergency evacuation plan & FGCU is committed to providing information on emergency notification procedures. You can find information on the emergency exits & Areas of Rescue Assistance for each building, as well as other emergency preparedness materials on the Environmental Health & Safety & University Police Department websites. If you will need assistance in the event of an emergency due to a disability, please contact Adaptive Services for available services & information.

Observance of Religious Holidays

All students at Florida Gulf Coast University have a right to expect that the University will reasonably accommodate their religious observances, practices, & beliefs. Students, upon prior notification to their instructors, shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith. Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered in their absence. Students shall not be penalized due to absence from class or other scheduled academic activity because of religious observances. Where practicable, major examinations, major assignments, & University ceremonies will not be scheduled on a major religious holy day. A student who is to be excused from class for a religious observance is not required to provide a second party certification of the reason for the absence.
